

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

EVENTS

FEB
8

DRAMA

THE LIQUID PLAIN

Claire Trevor School of the Arts

Written by Naomi Wallace (2012) and winner of the 2012 Horton Foote Prize for Promising New American Play, the play explores sexuality and the violence of the slave trade as we meet two runaway slaves on the docks of an 18th century Rhode Island port.

2:00 p.m. • Robert Cohen Theatre

FEB
11

LECTURE

SELF-PRESERVATION as RESISTANCE:

Tips for Practicing Self-Care & Social Justice

FEATURED SPEAKER

DR. SUMUN "SUMI" PENDAKUR

Associate Dean for Institutional Diversity,
Harvey Mudd College

Lunch provided with RSVP at EEE: bit.ly/pendakur

Noon - 1:00 p.m. • Cross-Cultural Center

FEB
19

FILM SCREENING and CONVERSATION

"THE HOUSE WE LIVE IN"

Discussion: White Flight and The Wage of Poverty:
Economic Discrimination in the 20th Century

11:55 a.m. - 1:15 p.m. • Education Building 1121

FEB
20

LECTURE

RESURRECTING JIM CROW:

Power, Racism and The American Road

FEATURED SPEAKER

FON L. GORDON

Associate professor of History at University of Central Florida, 20th century South scholar, social historian of the automobile in Florida as symbolic of the New South and the nation.

Noon • Law Building 3500

FEB
24

POETRY and LECTURE

ART, ACTIVISM and INSTITUTION BUILDING

WITH DISTINGUISHED POET

HAKI R. MADHUBUTI

Pizza and refreshments provided

5:30 - 8:00 p.m. • Newkirk Alumni Center

FEB
27

FILM SCREENING and Q&A

THE LONG ROAD to the HALL of FAME

WITH

REDA ZINE

CHUCK D

MALIK FARRAKHAN

GREG TATE

4:00 - 8:00 p.m. • Humanities Instructional Bldg 100

CONCERT

FEATURING

AGINDOTAN FAMILY BAND

UGOCHI the AFRICAN BUTTAFLY

8:00 - 10:00 p.m. • Winifred Smith Hall

FEB
28

ICIT BLACK URBAN MUSIC CONFERENCE

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

GREG TATE

WORKSHOPS

UGOCHI

NAJITE AGINDOTAN

RYAT

RAS G

BURNT SUGAR

9:30 a.m. - 5:45 p.m. Winifred Smith Hall

CONCERT

FEATURING

BURNT SUGAR the

ARKESTRA CHAMBER

8:00 - 10:00 p.m. Winifred Smith Hall

For details please visit:

bit.ly/UCI_BHM15