WHAT MATTERS TO ME...and why

VALUES - BELIEFS - MOTIVATIONS

PERSONAL JOURNEYS: CHOICES MADE, DIFFICULTIES ENCOUNTERED, COMMITMENTS GRASPED AND JOYS REVEALED. This informal lunchtime series is designed to build and strengthen bonds between people who teach, learn and work together daily, and to foster understanding of how each of us embraces the UCI Values.

OCTOBER 14

JAMES McGAUGH

Neurobiologist James McGaugh is a UCI founding faculty member whose research has vastly contributed to knowledge of the brain’s learning and memory abilities. Recipient of numerous honors over his career, he is a member of the National Academy of Sciences and won the 2015 University of Louisville Grawemeyer Award for Psychology. He came to UCI in 1964 to serve as chair of what is now the Department of Neurobiology & Behavior. He later was dean of biological sciences; vice chancellor of academic affairs; executive vice chancellor; and founding director of the Center for the Neurobiology of Learning & Memory, where he continues as a fellow. The biology building McGaugh Hall is named in his honor.

RESERVATIONS REQUIRED. A SIMPLE LUNCH WILL BE SERVED.
